

You have been invited to join a CPMS panel

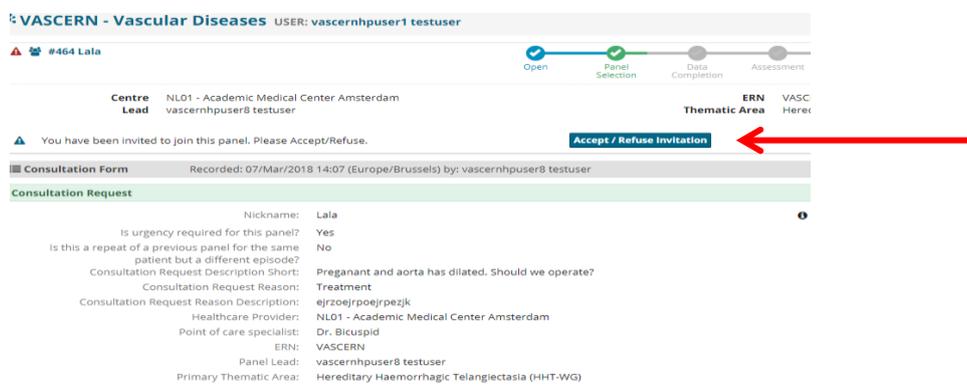

- 1) Login to the CPMS here: <https://cpms.ern-net.eu/login/>
- 2) You will arrive at the main CPMS dashboard. Click ERN to reach your personal dashboard.

- 3) At your personal dashboard you can see your tasks (member tasklist), invitations to panels (panel invitations), panels that you started (my panels), panels that you are currently contributing to (contributing panels), and upcoming meetings (my meetings). Click on the panel that you have been invited to.

4) You will see the invitation to join the panel. Click Accept/Refuse Invitation.

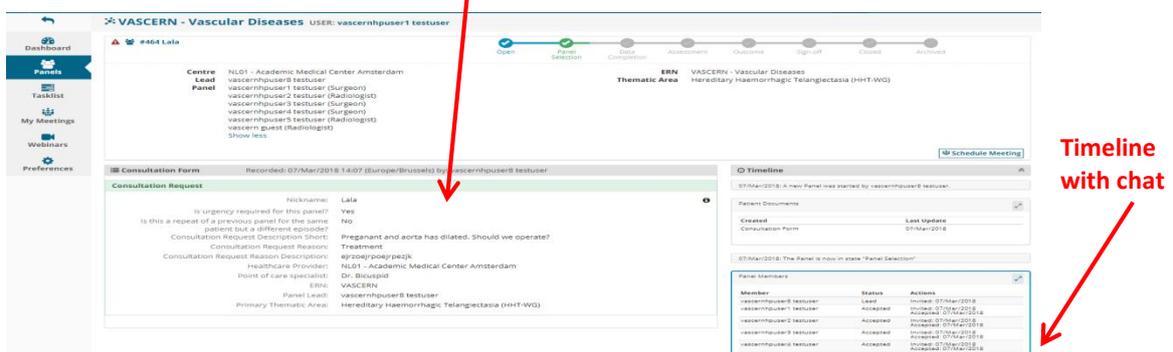

5) Click accept (or if you do not want to be in the panel click refuse), then close.

6) You will now have access to the consultation form that you can read and leave a comment in the timeline (or chat box), located in the right column of the screen. If the “compose message here...” space is not visible, refresh your page and it will appear.

Consultation form with description of case and patient case data.

- 7) Ask any questions or request additional information regarding the case in the chat box. All member comments will be visible in timeline to all members of the panel. The panel lead will complete the consultation form with additional information, if necessary, in the “data completion phase” of the panel.
- 8) For next steps or for more information, see “CPMS_Brief user manual”
